

The OAA Difference

With close to 30 years of effectively implementing programs in Latin America and the Caribbean in partnership with local faith-based actors, OAA offers partners the knowledge, expertise, and credibility needed to make a difference in the lives of vulnerable people in the region.

Strong relationships with local partners who directly serve beneficiaries

Deep experience working with faith-based partners in challenging contexts

Proven track record of empowering grassroots actors and advocating for fundamental freedoms

Diverse, bilingual staff representing various countries in the region, with decades of experience implementing U.S. government, NGO, and privately-funded projects

We are a faith-based nonprofit based in Miami, Florida, dedicated to serving vulnerable people in the Americas through humanitarian relief, human rights advocacy, and grassroots development.

RELIEF

Provide disaster preparedness and assistance, humanitarian aid, and respond to recovery efforts.

ADVOCACY

Advocate for human rights and dignity through the promotion of the interconnected freedoms of religion or belief, of expression, and of assembly.

DEVELOPMENT

Advocate for human rights and dignity through the promotion of freedom of religion or belief, freedom of expression, and freedom of assembly.
